Written Reflection 3: Exit Slip

What responsibility to Canadians have to remember the efforts and actions of individuals who contributed to the Allied victory in the Second World War? What can be done to commemorate and remember their actions?