

Consent to Share Personal Information

Note: To protect privacy, no personal information is provided to the public without informed consent. A parent/guardian gives informed consent when they agree to the sharing of personal information, understand what will be shared, for what purposes it will be used, and who will receive the information.

We are creating an online commemoration developed by students across Canada, and therefore showcasing the excellent work provided by students and their school. When we identify a student by name and/or photo in a newsletter, newspaper or on the Defining Moments Canada website or other web service provider, we must have the informed consent of the parent/guardian or the student, if the student is 18 years of age or older. Please read the following information and complete the areas indicated. If you have any questions or concerns please contact the principal of your school or you can contact Defining Moments Canada at info@canhist.ca.

Media:

It is possible that during special events that your child may be interviewed by the media and/or have his/her photograph taken. First and last name, grade and school may also identify the child. This information may be included not only in the hardcopy version of the newspaper but also on the media outlet's website. Defining Moments Canada is not responsible for any information posted by the media on its website, as it is outside of the care and control of Defining Moments Canada.

Defining Moments Canada Website and Social Media:

Defining Moments Canada website and Social Media: Refers to all official Defining Moments Canada websites and social media accounts.

Examples of social media include, but are not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat.

Refer to your school boards policy about Website and Social Media Management
