

Peer Feedback

Provide feedback to your classmates on their story maps by responding to the questions below and including additional observations and comments of your own. Use the marker provided to write your feedback on the large paper surrounding this sheet. Connect responses to the questions by arrows.

1. What large question or issue about war is addressed in this story map. How effectively it is communicated explicitly (directly stated) or implicitly (implied)?
2. What does the plot reveal about war, occupation and/or liberation? What questions do you have about the plot?
3. What role does the Canadian soldier play in the events and developments of the liberation of the Dutch city in the story map?
4. How is the Canadian soldier remembered by the Dutch city?